

GIM SOON WAN

Soon Wan is a Senior Design Engineer at VICOR Corporation to design and develop high power density DC/DC power converter with innovative technologies and patented topologies. Currently, Soon is the 2007 Regional Activities Board (RAB) GOLD Committee Chair. He has received the 2006 RAB GOLD achievement award for outstanding leadership and dedication to improving the Region 1 GOLD program by establishing best practices. He formed Boston GOLD in 2000, and led the group to receive the IEEE Regional Activities Award for Outstanding GOLD program by organizing successful technical and non-technical programs for young professionals in 2001. Soon graduated from Ngee Ann Polytechnic in Singapore as the top student with the highest merit diploma. He received Electrical and Computer Engineering degree with Summa Cum Laude at Merrimack University, and also as the top graduate student in 2000.