

ERIN N. HOGBIN

Erin Hogbin is currently employed by Millennium Engineering and Integration Company in King George, VA. Erin received her BSEE from West Virginia University (WVU) and her MS in Optical Sciences with an emphasis on detectors and Remote Sensing from the University of Arizona (UA).

Erin has been an active member of IEEE for 11 years, starting as a Student Member. She started her activities in IEEE as being part of the WVU S-PAC Planning Committee. From 1996-1997 Erin served as the WVU Student Branch Vice-Chair. From 1997-1999 she served as the WVU Student Branch Chair and as the Region 2 Student Representative on the Student Activities Committee under RAB. From mid 1999 through 2001 she served as the Region 6 S-PAC Support Coordinator. From 2001-2007, she has served as the Region 6 S-PAC Coordinator and is currently the 2008 Chair of the IEEE-USA S-PAC Committee.