

PEGGY G. HUTCHESON

Peggy G. Hutcheson, Ph.D., President of The Odyssey Group, is recognized as a leader in the field of management and career development. Her academic preparation (Ph.D. with a focus on organizational learning and career development), experience as a manager and HRD director, and more than twenty years consulting experience equip her to provide clients with state-of-the-practice, realistic, and effective solutions and systems. For more than ten years, Dr. Hutcheson has been an active member of IEEE-USA's Employment and Career Services Committee (formerly Career Maintenance and Development). She has presented at 4 biennial careers conferences, 3 leadership conferences, and 2 webinars for IEEE. She received a national award for her leadership in chairing the Careers Conference. In addition at the request of then President-Elect John Steadman, she headed a task force to research and make recommendations for revising IEEE-USA's non-technical conferences.
