

VICKIE A. OZBURN

Vickie Ozburn is a Sr. Project Manager at Rockwell Collins, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. In her current role, she has oversight of the SAP corrective action tool development and other special quality projects at Rockwell Collins. Vickie joined Rockwell Collins in 1991 in a manufacturing role at the Coralville, Iowa facility.

Ozburn has more 17 years of diverse experience with Rockwell Collins including engineering leadership, project management, sw engineering, quality systems, and production. Vickie came to Rockwell Collins from Armstrong's Department Store., in Cedar Rapids where she was a housewares and linens buyer for the organization. Vickie is a native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa and holds a bachelor's degree in software engineering from Mt Mercy College, a bachelor's degree in business administration from Coe College and a M.B.A from Nova Southeastern University.

Vickie has been actively involved as a volunteer for the Cedar Rapids Section ProCon Conference for 8 years, first as the facilities chairman and for the past two years as the conference chairman. She is married to Bill Ozburn and they have two sons Cameron and Austin.