

Todd Atkins

Todd Atkins is a member of the Educational Technical Marketing team at The MathWorks who is exploring how best to work with universities to help prepare the next generation of engineers and scientists. Todd has been at The MathWorks for over three years. In that time, he has been in a number of roles including support, development, and now marketing.

Todd's time at The MathWorks was split by a three year stint as a developer with a small mobile applications startup. Todd holds a B. S. and M. Eng. in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. His research was in the fields of artificial intelligence and computer vision. Additionally Todd was a teaching assistant for MIT's 6.001: Structure and Interpretation of Computer Programs course for three semesters.
